Photos from Entraide budgétaire Ottawa

35th Anniversary Celebration
held at Jean Pigott Place in Ottawa, Ontario
November 21st, 2014

Entraide Budgétaire Ottawa publicly changed its name. From now on, the organization will be known in English as EBO Financial Education Centre
Matthew Beutel, (United Way Ottawa), Joanne Lefebvre, CEO of Regroupement des gens d’affaires de la capital nationale (National Capital business association) and Chair of the Community Services Cabinet at United Way Ottawa, Hélène Ménard, Gérald Cossette and Martha Butler, Director and Vice-Chair of Entraide budgétaire Ottawa’s Board of Directors, respectively

Front: Joanne Lefebvre
Back (left to right): Martha Butler and Gérald Cossette, co-facilitators of the celebration
Left to right:
Ronald Caza, Honourary President of the 35th anniversary celebration, Joanne Lefebvre, Hélène Ménard, Gérald Cossette and Martha Butler

Left to right:
Joanne Lefebvre, Hélène Ménard and Ronald Caza
Left to right:
Isabelle Laviolette, Mr. Pierre Benoît, Desjardins and René Coignaux, new Executive Director at ACEF de l’Outaouais

Left to right:
Émilie René from the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada (FCAC), delivers a speech on behalf of Jane Rooney, 1st Financial Literacy Leader in Canada
Left to right:

Émilie René from FCAC, our co-facilitators with EBO’s new branding

Left to right:

Margot Arseneau, member, Richard Monette, founding member, Diane Martin, member and Pierrette Dessaint, also a founding member. Richard told the history behind the name Entraide budgétaire Ottawa
Laura, client of the budget counseling service, refers to her budget counsellor as her angel.

Laura, Diane Vachon, Chair of Entraide budgétaire Ottawa’s Board of Directors, and Janet Onyango, 2011-2012 recipient of the Joseph Assabgui Volunteer of the Year Award.
New branding for Entraide budgétaire Ottawa, now known as EBO Financial Education Centre/Centre d’éducation financière EBO
Entraide budgétaire Ottawa would like to thank its sponsors for their support of the 35th anniversary celebrations.